

Grill-Off Awards

Our Grill-Off judges do their very best to objectively award the winners in the following categories.

- ◇ Overall Grill Off Champion
 - Awarded to the best submissions in multiple categories and who most obviously takes the proverbial cake.
- ◇ People's Choice Award
 - Given to the group that is the fan fave, maybe because of décor or spirit or funny jokes. Who knows, could be anything?
- ◇ Category Awards
 - Handed to the group that wins the judges hearts in each respective food category (listed below).
 - Brisket
 - Ribs
 - Poultry + Pork
 - Sliders/Tacos;
 - Cheesy Sides
 - Non-Cheesy Sides
 - Chocolate Dessert
 - Non-Chocolate Dessert

Things to know:

- ◇ Each group will need to bring their own cooking equipment.
- ◇ Plan to cook bite-sized samples for 100 people. Also plan to bring extra food for your group to eat! People will be hungrier than you expect!
- ◇ Judging times:
 - 4:00pm brisket + ribs;
 - 4:10pm poultry/pork + sliders/tacos;
 - 4:20pm cheesy sides and non-cheesy sides + chocolate dessert and non-chocolate dessert.
- ◇ Your group can enter as many (or as few!) categories as you'd like.
- ◇ The church will reimburse up to $150 per group for food and supplies. (Receipts required)
- ◇ The church will provide tables, food boats, paper towels, forks, and drinks.
- ◇ If you are submitting your dish on your own serving piece, it MUST be DISPOSABLE.

FAQ's:

- ◇ Does my group have to enter the competition?
No. But remember – you miss 100% of the shots you don't take!
- ◇ Can our group combine with another group?
Yes, of course! If people from your group are out of town or busy or lame and combining with a group makes it possible for you to participate, we're for it!
- ◇ What time can we arrive?
Anytime, starting Friday at 5pm.
- ◇ Does my group have to cook on site?
No. You are welcomed to, though. Historically, we've really nailed the tailgating vibe before the event, so feel free to bring cornhole, KanJam, Spikeball, or any other yard games that would make the afternoon more fun.
- ◇ Can we bring a tent?
Sure, wouldn't hurt with the unpredictable weather we've been having lately.
- ◇ Will there be access to power?
Other than the Holy Spirit that resides within you, no!
- ◇ Will GBC reimburse my group for alcohol?
Seriously? We're a church. No.
- ◇ Can we use the GBC kitchen or grill?
No. We'll be using both for other things the day of the event, so they will be unavailable for use.
- ◇ Has Daniel Earnest ever won the Grill-Off before?
Is the Pope Catholic? Does a one-legged duck swim in a circle? Does a bear poop in the woods?
- ◇ Are the judges presiding over the competition qualified?
No – they're just normal people. But doesn't that help soften the blow when you lose?
- ◇ Will there be a prize for the winner of the competition?
"You will win the victor's crown of glory that never fades away" (1 Pet. 5:4).
